Method of Distribution

The scholarship recipient must request their respective college/university registrar's office to send a letter (on school letterhead) to this organization's mailing address, stating that the student is enrolled with full-time status for the fall of 2021. A "Verification of Enrollment" from the student's college portal is also acceptable (The document must contain the student's name and student ID number). The funds will be forfeited if the recipient withdraws from school prior to the receipt of the funds, or if the letter verifying the student's full-time status is not received by September 1, 2021. The scholarship check will be disbursed to the recipient upon verification of enrollment during the fall of 2021.
